

PANEL 2: AVIATION LANDSCAPES

Moderator

Anna Lena Joisten is head of the program department at Tempelhof Projekt GmbH. The department develops a diverse and attractive offering, inviting visitors from all over the world to Tempelhof Airport. The cultural remembrance and commemoration program makes an important contribution to opening up the building to the public. This consists of activities to enhance the visibility of the site's historical legacy and to educate visitors through a variety of instructional and outreach programs. In addition to exhibitions and lecture series in the visitor center and the THF Tower, this also includes building tours, publications and digital offerings. Anna Lena Joisten studied history and psychology in Bamberg and Keele, UK.
